

FINALIZING DISSOLUTION BY DEFAULT IN EX PARTE

King County Family Law Facilitators: Instruction # D-4
Revised Code of Washington 26.09
King County Local Rules

If your spouse/partner was properly served, and if he or she did not appear at any hearings or file any documents in your case (such as Response or Notice of Appearance) by the response deadline (20 days if by personal service in the State of Washington, 60 days if by personal service outside the State of Washington or by publication, 90 days if by mail) you may be able to finalize your Dissolution by Default in the Ex Parte Department.

The petitioner must have attended the Family Law Orientation, and, if the case involves minor children, the What About the Children parenting seminar, prior to finalization of the case.

STEP 1: OBTAIN AND COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING FORMS

- Motion and Declaration for Default, WPF DRPSCU 03.0100
- Order of Default, WPF DRPSCU 03.0200
- Findings of Fact/Conclusions of Law, WPF DR 04.0300 \(Marriage\) or WPF DR 04.0305 \(Registered Domestic Partnership\)
- Decree of Dissolution, WPF DR 04.0400 \(Marriage\) or WPF DR 04.0405 \(Registered Domestic Partnership\)
- Note for Motion Docket, Kent or Seattle (see Step 2)

If the case involves minor children, you will also need:

- Final Parenting Plan, WPF DR 01.0400
- Order of Child Support*, WPF DR 01.0500
- Child Support Worksheets* WSCSS – Worksheets \(Marriage\) or WSCSS – Worksheets RDP \(Registered Domestic Partnership\)

Even if you and your spouse/partner are requesting no child support, you must still complete the Worksheets and an Order of Child Support, according to Washington State law (RCW 26.19.035).*

These instructions do not include a list of forms needed to start a Dissolution action. Ask a Facilitator for the appropriate Instruction.

STEP 2: CHOOSE A COURT DATE TO FINALIZE YOUR DISSOLUTION

Washington State has a mandatory 90 day waiting period between the time you file and serve your spouse/partner, and the time you finalize your dissolution. The date of the hearing to finalize your dissolution must be at least 91 days (including weekends and holidays) after the day you filed your forms with the Clerk or the date the other party was served, whichever occurred last. Choose a court date by filling out the Note for Motion Docket as follows:

- Fill in the caption and case number at the top.
- Write in the Calendar Date and Day of the Week for the hearing date you select. You must choose a date that is at least 14 calendar days from the day you file this form with the clerk (and that also meets the waiting period requirement indicated above). You may choose any weekday that is not a court holiday.
- After “Nature of Motion”, write “Dissolution by default.”
- In the box labeled “Ex Parte”, check the following boxes: “Family Law Final Decree” and “No Attorney”. The hearing time will be 1:30 p.m.
- Complete the box that asks for your signature, name, and address.

File this form with the Clerk’s office.

If the case involves minor children, and if any of the children have ever been on public assistance, you must contact the King County Prosecuting Attorney’s Family Support Section as early in your case as possible, and deliver copies of the documents listed in Step 2, above.

In a marriage, if the wife is now pregnant, the husband is the presumed father. This presumption can be challenged up to 4 years after the birth of the child or as otherwise provided in RCW 26.26.500-.625. You should consult with an attorney regarding the requirements for legally establishing the parentage of a child if husband or wife believes the husband is not the father.

STEP 3: TALK TO AN ATTORNEY, IF POSSIBLE

These instructions are not a substitute for legal advice. The laws and court rules are complex and following these instructions will not guarantee you a favorable result. It is always advisable to talk to a lawyer about your problem before filing your action. If you cannot afford to hire an attorney to represent you, you may be able to pay a lawyer to give you advice and review your paperwork for a lesser cost. Contact the King County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Line for information about limited services representation. If you cannot afford these costs, there are limited free legal services available to low income people. Contact the Facilitators’ office for a Legal Resource List or the King County Bar Association for information about resources for low income people. Even if you do not hire a lawyer to represent you throughout the proceeding, a lawyer can look over your paperwork, give you advice on how to present your evidence, and tell you whether this type of action is right for you.

STEP 4: FINALIZE YOUR DISSOLUTION

Go to the Ex Parte Department on the day of your hearing. Your hearing will be at 1:30 p.m.

Bring the completed originals of the following documents:

- Motion and Declaration for Default
- Order of Default
- Findings of Fact/Conclusions of Law (Marriage or Registered Domestic Partnership)
- Decree of Dissolution (Marriage or Registered Domestic Partnership)

If you have minor children of this marriage/partnership you will also need to bring:

- Final Parenting Plan
- Order of Child Support*
- Child Support Worksheets* (Marriage or Domestic Partnership)

*Even if you and your spouse/partner are requesting no child support, you must still complete the Worksheets and an Order of Child Support, according to Washington State law (RCW 26.09.035).

Also bring your copies of all of your dissolution documents, including your copy of the Return of Service form.

WARNING: These instructions are not a substitute for legal advice. The laws and court rules are complex and following these instructions will not guarantee you a favorable result. It is always advisable to talk to a lawyer about your case before filing your action. (You may be able to hire a lawyer for a small fee to review your completed forms and talk about your problem but not represent you in court). If you need a lawyer, contact the Family Law Facilitators' for a Legal Resource List or call the King County Bar Association.
